Catalogue Course Description:

CSAD 199. English Language Institute. 1 Unit.

Term Typically Offered: Fall, Spring

Individual projects or directed reading. Open only to students competent to carry on individual work.

Prerequisites: Instructor permission required.

Corequisites: None

Place of Course in Program:

This independent study course is part of The English Language Institute (ELI) and is designed to use the information learned in CSAD 112, 126, and 143 to provide Communication Sciences and Disorders (CSAD) students with hands-on experiences relating to the topics covered in those courses. During this course, students will be given the choice to participate in the Language Partner Program or the Conversation Club.

Students will be required to attend one 1-hour class per week. During class, students will participate in discussions during which time they will learn skills to improve cultural competence within both the CSAD and the ELI Departments. After a few sessions, CSAD students will be given the opportunity to lead a session with the Program Coordinator during the class time.

During the Language Partner Program, CSAD students will be paired with an exchange student from ELI. Students are expected to meet with their partners once a week for 1 hour to engage in conversation to assist in improving the language skills of the ELI students.

During the Conversation Club sessions, CSAD students provide activities to enhance the language skills of ELI students in a nontraditional classroom setting.

Course Learning Outcomes:

Mastery of each student learning outcome listed below is indicated by a grade of C or better on each component of the corresponding measures listed in the table. Students are required to track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome and must make an appointment with the instructor for any grade equal to or less than a C. The instructor will suggest strategies to help you establish competence and knowledge in these areas.

Students should track their progress towards meeting each learning outcome by listing their grades on the table below over the course of the semester.

Upon completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Converse with students whose first language is not English
2. Exhibit improvements in cultural competence
3. Learn about and with an individual from another background
4. Exhibit a respect for diversity

Information will be provided on Google Classroom.

Course Requirements/Components:

Class Attendance: Attendance will be expected and roll will be taken. If you are unable to attend the session, you must notify the Program Coordinator by email prior to the scheduled time. You are allowed to miss one class period, regardless of reason. If you miss more than the one class period, your class grade will decrease by one grade level for each additional absence (e.g., from “A” to “A-”). Please arrive ON TIME to the study session, as being punctual is a professional skill to develop and maintain.

Due dates for all assignments: Due dates will be established by the student and instructor following discussion.

1. Requirements: Students are expected to attend an orientation or informational session, maintain a time sheet which will be provided, and actively engage in the program and classroom activities through one of three leadership activities: (1) leading a conversation club session, (2) leading a class session activity or discussion, or (3) giving a cultural presentation. Students will be required to sign up for one of the three leadership options. Leadership options can be completed in a group of up to three students or independently.
2. Attendance: Students are expected to attend the weekly class sessions that will be held on campus as well as meetings with their partner and/or Conversation Club sessions, as assigned.
3. Monthly status update of the Language Partner Program and Conversation Club: Four reflection papers are required throughout the semester. Students must type responses addressing assigned questions and/or prompts. Prompts will be created to allow students to reflect on their experiences working with their assigned language partner and/or their participation in Conversation Club. Hard copies of reflections must be turned into class on the assigned date.
4. Final report. Students are expected to type a double spaced, 2-page reflection paper on the program. As part of the final report, the following questions must be addressed:
 - a) What were some of the most interesting discoveries you made during this class?
 - b) What were some of the most challenging moments and how did you address them?
 - c) How were you able to relate the knowledge from previous CSAD coursework to your experiences in this program? In your response, you must refer to at least two different classes.
 - d) How and where might you use your knowledge from this experience in the future as a Speech Language Pathologist, Audiologist, or Teacher etc.?
 - e) What improvements can be made to the Language Partner Program, Conversation Club, and/or the class sessions, to further improve student’s experiences?

Grading Policy:

Students will have the opportunity to earn points towards their grade through assignments, exams and class participation.

Course Policies/Procedures:

1. Attendance: Professional attendance and dress is required. Students must report absences to the instructor in person or by email prior to class meeting. Practice attending now as attendance (and promptness) at scheduled meetings is a professional behavior that students will need to develop and maintain. Dress should consist of neat and clean business-casual attire.
2. Students are responsible for all materials covered in their absence. This means that students must obtain any materials handed out during a missed session from a classmate.
3. Cellphones/Recording/Electronic Devices: Please silence all cellphones and other communication devices prior to class. To facilitate students' learning (practice in note-taking) and out of respect for fellow classmates (to allow all students to feel comfortable actively participating in class discussion), students are not permitted to audio or video record.
4. Technology use in the classroom and during class activities: It is a course expectation that students will participate fully in class discussion and activities and give classmates and language partners their full and undivided attention. Laptops or other technological devices will only be permitted to be used during class time if they allow students to take notes on lecture materials and if they are able to be physically and mentally present in class. Students are not permitted to engage in other homework or extracurricular activities during class time or during Language Partners or Conversation Club. "Multitasking" will not be permitted.
5. Course Evaluations: At the completion of the course, each student is expected to comment on the nature of this course through the reflection assignment. This procedure allows the instructor to modify segments of the course in order to make it more applicable to future students' educational and professional growth.

Additional Information

Commitment to Integrity:

As a student in this course (and at this university) you are expected to maintain high degrees of professionalism, commitment to active learning and participation in this class and also integrity in your behavior in and out of the classroom.

Sac State's Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures:

“The principles of truth and honesty are recognized as fundamental to a community of scholars and teachers. California State University, Sacramento expects that both faculty and students will honor these principles, and in so doing, will protect the integrity of academic work and student grades.” Read more about Sac State's Academic Honesty Policy & Procedures at the following website: <http://www.csus.edu/umannual/student/stu-0100.htm>
