CRJ 172 Comparative Criminal Justice Systems or CRJ 250 Comparative Analysis of the Criminal Justice System

The Division of Criminal Justice is planning an exciting study and travel opportunity for summer 2023 to explore the vibrant, peaceful and culturally enriching nation of Ghana in West Africa. The program will examine comparative perspectives of law, justice, international human rights, and community justice and response to violence, as well as restorative justice and conflict-resolution processes. This is a life-changing opportunity for students to immerse in a diverse, rich African culture, while receiving three units of credit for CRJ 172 or CRJ 250. Visits will include the Ghanaian capital of Accra and the historic towns of Cape Coast and Kumasi.

Course Dates: Days in Ghana: July 12-24, 2023
