Faculty-Led Study Abroad
University of Ghana, Legon
July 10 – 22, 2020

The Division of Criminal Justice offers an exciting study and travel opportunity for summer 2020 to explore the vibrant, peaceful and culturally enriching nation of Ghana in West Africa. The trip will examine comparative perspectives of law, justice, international human rights, and community justice and response to violence, as well as restorative justice and conflict-resolution processes. This is a life-changing opportunity for students to immerse in a diverse, rich African culture, while receiving three units of credit for CRJ 172 or CRJ 250.

Receive 3 units towards one of the following courses:
CRJ 172 - Comparative Criminal Justice Systems
CRJ 250 - Comparative Analysis of the Criminal Justice System

Open to undergraduate, graduate students and the community

No prerequisites for students
