CRJ 172 Comparative Criminal Justice Systems or
CRJ 250 Comparative Analysis of the Criminal Justice System

The Division of Criminal Justice is planning an exciting study and travel opportunity for summer 2022 to explore the vibrant, peaceful and culturally enriching nation of Ghana in West Africa. The program will examine comparative perspectives of law, justice, international human rights, and community justice and response to violence, as well as restorative justice and conflict-resolution processes. This is a life-changing opportunity for students to immerse in a diverse, rich African culture, while receiving three units of credit for CRJ 172 or CRJ 250. Visits will include the Ghanaian capital of Accra and the historic towns of Cape Coast and Kumasi.

Course Dates: Days in Ghana: July 13-23, 2022

Price: $2,600

What’s Included:
- 3 units towards CRJ 172 or CRJ 250
- Travel insurance
- In-country transportation
- Lodging at University of Ghana-Legon
- All excursions (City tour, Cape Coast Castle, King’s Palace, and Kente Village and Market)
- Cost does not include round-trip airfare from the United States

Info Sessions: Wed. February 23 12:00pm - 1:00pm
Meeting ID: 842 0787 9472

Payment Plan Deadlines:
- Down Payment ($500): February 25, 2022
- Payment 1 ($825): March 31, 2022
- Final payment ($1,275): April 29, 2022

Open to students from other universities, and community members who would like to study abroad.