

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY
COLLOQUIUM SPEAKER SERIES

WHO COUNTS AS KOREAN?: RECOGNITION AND DIASPORIC CITIZENSHIP ACROSS THE UNITED STATES AND MEXICO

Based on over ten years of ethnographic and historical research with Korean diasporic communities in the United States and Mexico, this talk explores how descendants of migrants who left the Korean peninsula in the early 20th century - before the creation of either modern Korean state - navigate questions of descent, identity, and belonging.

PRESENTER: DR. RACHEL H. LIM

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR,
DEPARTMENT OF ETHNIC STUDIES

WHEN: FRIDAY, SEPT. 11TH
3:30 PM - 4:30 PM

WHERE: MENDOCINO HALL
4TH FLOOR
ROOM 4008

SACRAMENTO STATE
Department of Anthropology

FOR ANY ADA ACCOMMODATIONS EMAIL ANTHRO@CSUS.EDU
A MINIMUM OF 5-BUSINESS DAYS PRIOR TO THE EVENT