

CSUS NAGPRA Consultation Request Form

ACF NAGPRA Staff requests the following information to help plan and prepare for your consultation visit to make it as efficient and productive as possible. Please return this completed form in the provided envelope or email the form back to Sarah Eckhardt (Sarah.Eckhardt@csus.edu). If you need more space, please attach additional pages.

Name of Tribe: _____

Date(s) requesting to visit (please supply at least three possibilities)

Example: 7/12/2017

Time of Arrival you would prefer to start consultation (after 8:30am): _____

Name of NAGPRA Tribal Contact, address, email and phone number

Name:
Address:
Email:
Phone:

Please list names and titles of any other attendees who may participate in the Consultation.

Name	Title

Which collections do you wish to consult on? Please be as specific as possible – i.e., archaeological site name/number, type of collection (example: materials related to the Chumash), or specific catalog numbers if known.

CSUS NAGPRA Consultation Request Form

What are your priorities for the consultation? (e.g., viewing the entire collection, viewing funerary objects, viewing cultural objects, review of documentation, etc.)

Are there any special consideration we should take into account when planning your consultation? (e.g., religious/ ceremonial accommodations, private meeting space, logistical assistance, technical needs, etc.)

Do you request the viewing of human remains? yes no

Is handicapped access necessary? yes no

Do you need directions to the ACF? yes no

A permit is required to park on the CSUS campus. How many permits will be required to accommodate your vehicles? (We will be in contact to finalize the parking request prior to the schedule consultation.)

Please return this form via email attachment or by mail to:

Sarah Eckhardt
NAGPRA Coordinator
Department of Anthropology, MS 6106
6000 J Street
Sacramento, CA 95819-6106
sarah.eckhardt@csus.edu

For questions, please contact Dr. Jacob Fisher at 916-278-4555 or Sarah Eckhardt at 916-278-6292