

Janeth Marroletti, MPH, CHES

Janeth Marroletti is a health educator and advocate for older adult with a Master's Degree in Public Health from the California State University in Fullerton.

She has been in the aging field for over thirteen years developing programs and services for older adults in California.

Her experience with nutrition programs extends 10 years managing and expanding the Meals on Wheels Program and Senior Center lunch for 21 cities in Orange County prior to leaving city life and moving to a rural community.

In her spare time, Janeth likes to volunteer, binge watch Netflix shows, travel, and spend time with her 2 dogs, 12 chickens, 2 goats, and 2 ducks.