CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, SACRAMENTO

Gerontology Program

19th Annual Sigma Phi Omega Gamma Chi Chapter

Induction Ceremony & Reception

Wednesday, March 27, 2019
5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Epicure Restaurant

- About the Society & Our Chapter -

Since 1980, the Sigma Phi Omega National Honor and Professional Society has recognized the excellence of those who study gerontology and aging, as well as professionals in the field of aging service.

The purpose of Sacramento State's Gamma Chi Chapter is to promote scholarship, professionalism, friendship and service to older persons, and to recognize extraordinary achievements in gerontology, aging studies, and related fields.

Eligible students from Sacramento State and American River College are invited to membership each year, and professionals in the field may apply to join through the Chapter as well.

Privileges of Membership Include:

- ◆ Acknowledgement of your academic and professional excellence.
- ◆ Opportunities to meet, network, and socialize with others in the aging field.
- ◆ Opportunities to gain professional support in your career.
- ◆ Eligibility to apply for special scholarships.
- ◆ Invitations to attend local and national conferences, lectures and special events.
- ◆ Subscription to the national newsletter.
- ◆ A certificate of membership and a lapel pin.
