

PSYC 143:

PRACTICUM IN COMMUNITY PSYCHOLOGY

FALL 2024 RECRUITMENT

Are you interested in learning about Community Psychology while gaining practical experience in a community organization? Applications are now open for Fall 2024!

PRIORITY DEADLINE: FRIDAY, MAY 3

Application for enrollment is available using the QR code below. This 3-unit course will be taught in a hybrid format, consisting of in-person course meetings on Thursdays (9-10:15am) with the faculty instructor and classmates. Students will also view recorded lecture content, complete assessments, and engage in 60 hours of service learning. See the application for more information about the course and our community partners!
