

Table 18: PPA 240A Language for Specific Primary Learning Objectives

Specific PPA Learning Objective	Translation to be used in learning objectives for course that appears on course
2d. Learn the appropriate knowledge and skills of organizational theory and behavior	Develop a sophisticated sense of the form(s) of the core theories that build the foundation for understanding organizations.
2e. Draw upon multiple disciplines to understand problems faced in public policy and administration	Improve your ability and confidence using multiple theories to understand and solve problems within public organizations.
2f. Learn how to access relevant data and literature	Gain experience with graduate level literature review skills.
3d. Know how to work effectively in groups	Improve your skills at working with groups.
3f. Understand the critical role of effective leadership	Understand the role effective leadership can play in advancing public organizations.
4a. Understand your obligation to advance public value	Understand your obligations as a public manager including advancing public value.
4d. Understand the administrators role as analyst and advocate	Understand the many roles an administrator must play to effectively advance the public good in an administrative role including advancing public value, analyzing policy and administrative issues, and when appropriate, advocating..