Theatre Mainstage Series

*Working for Crumbs*

Through July 12

A disastrous cookie order, a terrifying boss, and one very dead executive send two overworked office assistants into full panic mode in Working for Crumbs—the world premiere comedy by Kate Danley and the 2025 winner of B Street Theatre's New Comedies Festival. Amy and Grace are just trying to survive another day in a toxic corporate office ruled by Helen, a self-important executive obsessed with status, control, and white chocolate macadamia cookies. Catch it before it closes!

Concerts & Special Events

*Jacam Manricks Presents Elio Villafranca*

July 2 | 7pm Grammy-nominated Cuban pianist and composer Elio Villafranca brings his Jass Syncopators to The Sofia for one extraordinary night of jazz. Presented by saxophonist Jacam Manricks, this performance blends Afro-Caribbean rhythms with hard-swinging jazz in an intimate setting you won't want to miss.

*Big Mike Hart*

July 11 | 7pm Sacramento's own Michael "Big Mike" Hart Jr. brings his powerful stage presence and one-of-a-kind sound to The Sofia. Rooted in funk, jazz, gospel, and soul, Big Mike is a guitarist, songwriter, and performer who commands the room from the first note to the last.

*The 2026 New Comedies Festival*

July 12–19 B Street Theatre's annual New Comedies Festival returns for its seventh year, showcasing four world-premiere comedy readings competing for a spot in next season's Mainstage lineup. The festival opens with a Kickoff Celebration on July 12 at 6pm, followed by readings throughout the week—including Cocktails & Travails, Melvil Dewey Messed Me Up, Lady Parts, and D.Q.M.. Come see tomorrow's hits today.

*The Henry Robinett Group*

July 24 | 7pm Sacramento jazz legend Henry Robinett—award-winning guitarist, composer, and second cousin to the great Charles Mingus—brings his acclaimed group to The Sofia. With albums that have reached the top 20 on the JazzWeek radio charts, this is an evening of world-class jazz rooted right here in Sacramento.

The Dreamboats

July 25 | 7pm The Dreamboats bring the irresistible energy of 50s and 60s rock 'n' roll back to life—think Chuck Berry, early rock classics, and a night guaranteed to get you on your feet. Pure feel-good fun.

In a Nutshell: Storytelling Series

July 31 | 7pm Sacramento's home for live storytelling is back with the theme "Best in Show." Part comedy, part confession, part catharsis—true tales told live on stage, hosted by Keith Lowell Jensen, Amy Bee, and Aaron Carnes.
