Adding/Dropping Classes
Fall 2020

Adding Classes:
The Department of Sociology has determined two different ways to add classes this semester.

For the following classes, these classes are based on a live wait list. The university deleted wait lists (8/27/20). Add your name to the wait list online (if it is full, you can continue to check). As students drop, new students will be added to the wait list.

- Soc 1, sections 1, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9
- Soc 3, sections 1, 2, 3, 5
- Soc 8, section 4
- Soc 120, section 1
- Soc 125, sections 2, 3, 6
- Soc 126
- Soc 128
- Soc 135
- Soc 136
- Soc 150, section 3
- Soc 155, sections 2, 4
- Soc 166
- Soc 171

For all sections of Sociology 101, 102, 150, 168, 192 not listed above, use the form to add your name to a centralized wait list to help the department get students access to needed classes. Click here to access form (Link to form) (cut and paste link: https://forms.gle/FDnYzDjkvtgbnJxx7)

For all remaining courses (including graduate classes), please contact the professor.

Dropping Classes:
For the first 2 weeks, you can drop any class online on your own.
Weeks 3-4, you will need instructor permission.

Administrative Drops:
For synchronous classes, students who do not attend two class meetings (or one meeting for once a week course) during the first two weeks of instruction and have not contacted instructor to make acceptable arrangements and explain their absence may be removed from the course.

For asynchronous classes, students who do not submit assignments and/or participated in online class activities during the first two weeks of classes and has not contacted the professor to explain their lack of class engagement may be removed from the course.
