B.S. in Women’s & Gender Studies
At Sacramento State University

Women’s and Gender Studies is a dynamic interdisciplinary field preparing students to be future leaders, scholars, and social justice activists. Students will be able to connect what they are learning in the classroom to political projects and personal experiences. Total units required for the Major: 36.

Topics of Study Include:
- Performance of Gender & Sexuality
- Intersection of Gender, Race & Class
- Interdisciplinary Approaches to Gender Studies
- Women & Work
- Gender & Culture
- Globalization
- Women of Color
- Women in War & Violence
- Politics of Feminism

Career Options for Women’s & Gender Studies Majors:
- Education: University Professors, University Staff, K-12 teachers, curriculum specialists, Department of Education
- Paid Organizer: Labor Unions and organizations such as the Feminist Majority or the National Organization of Women
- Writer/Researcher on women’s issues
- Non-profit agencies with an emphasis on social issues
- Human Resources
- Law
- Medicine/Women’s Health
- Consultant on Women’s Issues: Political campaigns and legislative aides.
- International Development: Non-governmental organizations
- Career Development: Career Development consultant and trainer, job developer

For More Information Contact Us:
Women’s & Gender Studies Department
California State University, Sacramento
6000 J Street, Amador Hall 550
Sacramento, CA 95819-6035
Phone: (916) 278-6817
Email: Wom ensStudies@csus. edu
Website: WWW.csus. edu/SSIS/wom ens-gender-studies

Department Office Hours:
Monday-Friday 8:00AM to 5:00PM
Please visit our website for Faculty contact information