Sacramento State is at the forefront of issues paramount to the region, such as environmental research, politics, business, arts, health care, entrepreneurship, and more. The University is preparing tomorrow’s leaders to embrace California’s opportunities, solve its challenges, and redefine what’s possible.

At a Glance

Founded: 1947 as Sacramento State College

President: Robert S. Nelsen

Campus: 300 acres, six miles from the State Capitol; a designated “Tree Campus USA”

Six-County Region: Sacramento, Placer, Yolo, El Dorado, Sutter, Yuba

Students: Fall 2020 total enrollment - 31,451 (28,697 undergraduate students; 2,754 graduate students)

Sacramento State is the second most diverse university in the western United States, according to U.S. News and World Report, 2020 rankings.
Faculty: Fall 2020 - 1,817 (part-time: 1,049, full-time: 768)

Colleges:
- Arts & Letters
- Business
- Continuing Education
- Education
- Engineering & Computer Science
- Health & Human Services
- Natural Sciences & Mathematics
- Social Sciences & Interdisciplinary Studies

Academics: The University offers 72 bachelor’s degree programs with 78 concentrations; 59 master’s degree programs with 30 concentrations; 5 doctoral degrees in Audiology, Physical Therapy, School Psychology, Public History, and Educational Leadership, with 2 concentrations in Ed.D.; and 19 post-baccalaureate certificates and 20 credential programs.

Athletics: NCAA Division I

Alumni: More than 260,000 alumni around the world; 1-in-20 residents in the Sacramento region is an alumnus or alumna.

The award-winning Made at Sac State marketing campaign celebrates the success and impact of Sacramento State through the inspirational stories of our graduates.