

Restarting Research at Sacramento State

Model for Phased Approach to Restoration of Research, Scholarship and Creative Activities
Phase V – SCOPE OF WORK: SCOPE OF WORK: Open The following people may engage in research and scholarship-related activities on campus: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Faculty   <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Staff   <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Students   <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Guests/Visitors And their work may proceed subject to the following conditions: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Maximum number of people is subject to standard health and safety guidelines. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Maximum amount of time on campus is subject to standard campus policy.
Phase	External Conditions	Summary	Actions	Time Period
5	No or minimal state restrictions. Vaccine widely available and used in combination with widespread testing and contact tracing following new COVID-19 cases. Timely quarantine and isolation being implemented in accordance with all public health guidelines.	All types of research, scholarship and creative activities are allowed.	RESEARCH RESTORED, I.E., AT 100% OF NORMAL EFFORT Campuses may allow all lab, studio and field research operations to recommence. In consultation with EHS and Risk Management, campus may consider reducing or eliminating all COVID 19 Standard Operating Procedures.	TBA