

Examples of the different forms of sexual harassment for 4-6:

Sexual Harassment: Hostile Environment:

A boy flips up a girls skirt as she is walking down a hallway. The school has informed students that these types of behaviors are unacceptable.

You receive an anonymous note about boy who struggles with sports and is called “gay” by other students during recess.

A boy decides that he likes a girl, and writes her a note telling her this. She says she does not return the interest. He continues to send her notes, try to talk to her, and to give her gifts. She tells her mother that she does not feel comfortable at school because of the boy.

Boy who snaps girls’ bras and makes them cry.

Sexual Harassment: Quid Pro Quo:

A female student is told behind the building by a male student that if she lets him touch her, she can sit with him and his friends at lunch.
