The CSU International Programs Scholarship Application

This scholarship is made possible through the generous donations of past IP students. The award is $500. Selection will be based on academic excellence, financial need and the quality of the scholarship application.

Submit your scholarship application by December 15 (for academic year programs) or May 1 (for calendar year programs) to your home campus study abroad advisor. (The same day that your IP application is due.)

Recipients will be required to write and submit a three-page summary of their IP experiences and submit it to OIP mid-year (December for most programs, July for Australia and South Africa). Actual financial awards will be mailed to students mid-year, after their written statements are received (January for most programs, August for Australia and South Africa). Recipients agree to assist OIP during their year abroad by corresponding by e-mail with the Assistant Director for Student Affairs to provide updated information that future IP participants will need to know.

The scholarship is available to all IP participants except those applying for Japan, China or Taiwan. (Students applying for Japan, China or Taiwan should see their IP Campus Coordinators for information about other scholarship opportunities.)

Please type or write clearly in black ink.

International Programs Scholarship Essay

Using the space provided, please write a two or three paragraph essay explaining why you should be considered for an IP Scholarship. Keep in mind that your essay should focus especially on your academic achievements thus far and your financial need in the year ahead.

The information contained in this application is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. If any of this information should change, I will notify the Office of International Programs immediately.

I understand that if I am chosen to receive an IP Scholarship, I will be obliged to submit an essay to OIP mid-way through my program, and that the essay may be used for advertising purposes. I also understand that the financial award will be made to me only after OIP receives my essay. Furthermore, I agree to assist OIP during my year abroad by corresponding by e-mail from time to time with the Assistant Director for Student Affairs to provide updated information that future IP participants will need to know.
