Writing and Research Across the Disciplines
EDGR 260; Fall 2016
Wednesday, 4:00 to 6:50 PM
Mariposa Hall 2030

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
Orientation to graduate study design to introduce students to research within their field of study (school psychology) and across disciplines in the College of Education. Focus on writing to communicate evidence-based knowledge in a professional manner using APA style. Includes research presentations, active discussion, critical reading, and analytical writing with some activities.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
From participation in this course it is expected that students will:
1. Be introduced to DSM-5
2. Be introduced to issues relevant to LBTQ2-S students.
3. Be introduced to legal and ethical issues relevant to the practice of school psychology.
4. Demonstrate the ability to produce graduate level writing products.

READINGS:

Other required readings are available online as indicated on the attached course schedule.

RECOMMENDED RESOURCES:

LECTURE HANDOUTS:
Weekly lecture handouts can be downloaded from the web at the following address: http://www.csus.edu/indiv/b/brocks
(Note: to keep readings and lectures current the instructor will be posting these materials just before the class meeting so please do not download and print out all materials for this class at one time.)

GRADES WILL BE BASED ON THE FOLLOWING:
1. Reflection Papers: 90% (the first two papers are worth 20% of the final grade, and the final paper is worth 50% of the final grade).
2. Class Participation: 10%
3. Attendance: Interactional learning cannot be duplicated outside the classroom. Students missing more than 2 classes cannot receive an A; students missing more than 3 classes cannot receive a passing grade. Students who miss more than 20 minutes of any class will be considered absent, even if able to attend the majority of the class period.)
SPECIAL NOTES:
1. NASP Domains of School Psychology Graduate Education and Practice addressed in this class include:
   Domain 2.2: Consultation and collaboration
   Domain 2.8: Diversity in development and learning
   Domain 2.10: Legal, ethical, and professional practice

2. CCTC standards addressed in this class:
   Standard 6: Professional Ethics and Legal Mandates
   Standard 12: Professional Leadership Development
   Standard 19: Legal, Ethical and Professional Foundations
   Standard 20: Collaboration and Consultation

3. Please turn off all cell phones or, if you need to be available for any emergency phone calls, put it on silent mode.

4. Computer use is not allowed (emailing, web surfing) unless it is a directed part of a classroom activity. If you need to use your computer for note taking during class please check with the instructor prior to doing so for this class.

5. Assigned grades will be consistent with CSUS grading policy as described in the course catalog.

6. All late assignments will have a minimum of a one full letter grade deduction (i.e., an assignment that might otherwise have been graded a “B” would receive a grade of “C”).

7. If you have a disability and require accommodations, you need to provide disability documentations to SSWD, Lassen Hall 1008, (916) 278-6955. Please discuss your accommodation needs with the instructor after class or during office hours early in the semester.

8. Academic Honesty Policy: Go to http://www.csus.edu/umanual/AcademicHonestyPolicyandProcedures.htm for the CSUS Academic Honesty Policy and Procedures. Per University Policy all students are responsible for:
   a) Understanding the rules that preserve academic honesty and abiding by them at all times. This includes learning and following the particular rules associated with specific classes, exams, and course assignments. Ignorance of these rules is not a defense to a charge of academic dishonesty.
   b) Understanding what cheating and plagiarism are and taking steps to avoid them. Students are expected to do this whether working individually or as part of a group.
   c) Not taking credit for academic work that is not their own.
   d) Not knowingly encouraging or making possible cheating or plagiarism by others.
   Please refer to http://library.csus.edu/content2.asp?pageID=353 for a student tutorial on how not to plagiarize.

9. This course is considered a Writing Intensive Course and as such meets the first step of the Graduation Writing Assessment Requirement (GWAR; Option B). As such it must do the following:
   a) The course must build on the basic skills and knowledge acquired by students in their foundation courses in General Education or the major.
   b) The course must expand students' knowledge by examining complex issues.
   c) The course must expand students' abilities to reason logically and to write clearly in prose.
   d) Students must be required to write not less than 5,000 words of clear and logical prose (not to include simple narrative or diary writing).
   e) Instructors must work actively with students to sharpen analytical abilities and to improve their writing styles.
   f) Writing assignments must be spread over the entire semester (with at least 3,000 of the 5,000 words due before the last two weeks of instruction).
   g) Instructors must provide timely responses and evaluation of each writing assignment, and evaluations and comments must not only be about the subject matter content but also about writing skills.
Given the high stakes associated with the writing assignments, any paper graded lower than a “B” will be read by at least two instructors.

Scholarly writing:

Three papers worth a total of 90% of the course grade are required during the semester and due at the start of class on the dates listed on the Course Schedule. Each paper must be of a specific word length (see below) as the requirement for a Graduate Writing Intensive (GWI) course is a total of 5,000 words over the course of the semester.

Paper 1: Special Topic (1,000 words). From a list of selected topics provided by the instructor write a paper addressing the following:

a) From your review of the available literature discuss the relevance of DMS-5 to the practice of school psychology.

b) From your review of the available literature discuss the relationship between one or more specific DSM-5 diagnoses and the practice of school psychology.

c) Regarding LGBTQ2-S students, discuss the professional, ethical, and legal issues relevant to the practice of school psychology.

Paper 2: Legal Issue (1,000 words). From your review of available literature, with specific emphasis on relevant statutory and case law, please discuss what a school psychologist should consider, and what a school psychologist should do, when:

a) Deciding what areas to assess a child for special education?

Hypo #1 Assessment: Zoe is 8 years old and is enrolled in a general education 2nd grade classroom at Some Elementary School. Zoe was retained in kindergarten because staff was concerned about her behavior, and low academic skills. In kindergarten, Zoe had difficulty focusing and would often not comply with teacher directions, after multiple reminders. Her parents requested a 1:1 aide in 1st grade, to address her continued behavior and academic struggles, which the district denied. Zoe ended her first grade school year reading at a primer reading level, and had 6 referrals to the office. In 2nd grade, parents stated concerns about reading and behavior. Principal started SST process. At the SST meeting, parents said they were taking Zoe to doctor to see if she has ADHD, and they asked for special education assessment.

b) Deciding whether or not a student’s misconduct is a manifestation of his/her disability?

Hypo #2 Manifestation Determination: Drake is an 8th grade student, eligible for special education under the category of OHI, for ADHD. He is recommended for expulsion after being caught at school with a knife. When questioned about the knife and why he brought it to school, Drake said, “it was an impulsive last minute decision” made right before leaving his house that morning for school. His IEP provides for specialized academic instruction for two hours per week, and a behavior plan. However, he has only been receiving specialized academic instruction for one hour per week, since the start of the school year.

c) Deciding whether or not to recommend that the IEP team find a child for eligible for special education.

Hypo #3 Eligibility: L.J. attends elementary school in Some Unified School District (SUSD). He has been diagnosed with bipolar disorder, oppositional defiant disorder, and ADHD. Because of the behavioral issues, PUSD has transferred him between three different schools during grades second through fifth. L.J.’s mother requested on a number of occasions that he be made eligible for special education services. Although the school district provided him with special services, which included counseling, one-on-one assistance and instructional accommodations, it consistently refused to provide him with an IEP, saying that his needs were being met. During these same years, L.J.’s grades were A’s and B’s in all subjects. L.J.’s mom requested special education testing. SUSD conducted academic testing and cognitive testing, to look at eligibility under SLD. SUSD found that L.J. was not eligible for special education, since he did not meet the definition of SLD. In July 2015, L.J.’s mother requested a due process hearing. She claimed SUSD denied L.J. a FAPE by failing to make him eligible for special education and related services, and that PUSD had failed to conduct assessments in areas of suspected disability, specifically other health impairment and emotional disturbance.

Writing Tips for Paper #2

- Follow the F-I-R-A-C Format
- Prepare an outline
  - Attention Grabber (Quote, Question, Startling Facts, Story)
  - FACTS: Discuss the facts presented with the hypothesis
  - ISSUE: State the issue (question presented)
  - RULE: Summarize the main rules of law that will govern your analysis/answer to the issue/question presented
  - ANALYSIS
    - Discuss case #1 and how it applies to the hypothetical
    - Discuss case #2 and how it applies to the hypothetical
    - Discuss federal and state law and how they apply to the hypothetical
    - Discuss other cases and how they apply to hypothetical
    - Discuss both sides of the issue (separately, here, or within each of the above)
  - CONCLUSION
    - Reconnect with the attention grabber
    - Summarize main points and make a final determination/conclusion
- Minimize use of quotes
- Include discussion of at least two cases, and applicable IDEA and state law
- USE APA and follow rules for case and statutory citation.
  - Educ. Code § 48900
  - Educ. Code §§ 48900, 48901, 48902
  - 34 C.F.R. § 300.300(b)
  - 20 U.S.C. § 1415(i)(3)
    - If you are going to reference again, then first cite start with: Board of Education v. Rowley (1982), 102 S. Ct. 3034, at 10 (“Rowley”).
    - So that when you cite to it again, you can cite as: Rowley, Id. (for the same page) or Rowley, at 15 (for page 15, instead of page 10).
    - Italicize case name, year in parenthesis, citation number, page number.

Paper 3; Expansion of Paper 1 and/or 2 (3,000 words). Keeping in mind instructor feedback and building upon paper(s) 1 and/or 2 write a final 3000 word essay. See the instructor for guidance on topic selection and expansion of your prior paper(s).
