概要：COURSE DESCRIPTION

JPN 402 is the fourth year continuation of JPN 401. While the course is targeted for further development of the four language skills in Japanese - listening, speaking, reading, and writing, a strong emphasis is placed on the development of the language skills necessary for intercultural studies, including the following goals: (1) to gain knowledge of the target culture and society, (2) to gain objective views of intercultural issues and conflicts, and (3) to express your ideas and viewpoints on these issues. The course utilizes two primary materials – one of the well-known modern literary works (but in manga) and a recent Japanese movie.

埋め合わせについて MAKE-UP POLICY (IMPORTANT)

Under normal circumstances, NO make up will be allowed for any of the course requirements. HOWEVER:

Your lowest grades for each of the following categories will be automatically dropped at the end of the semester (this applies to everyone): 2 Attendance, 1 Quiz. (Please note that there is NO drop for the other categories.)

Make ups may be arranged if there is a medical or academic excuse (e.g. course conflict). You are required to provide a dated official proof in a timely manner (i.e. before expected absence or immediately after unexpected absence). For a make-up homework assignment, the first day of your presence after the absence is considered as the due date, and for the other graded items, the appointment must be made for a make up within a week in order to receive credits. Homework assignments may be handed in before the due date for full credit if you expect your absence ahead of time.

- Absence that exceeds 1/3 of the semester, including documented medical absences, will result in a F grade.
- You have to earn a grade of C or higher in order to continue with a Japanese language course at higher level.
- No “Incomplete Grade (I)” is given for the course.
