Part 2: Course Objectives

JAPN116B is the second half of third-year Japanese. The course is designed to reinforce, utilize, and expand Japanese communication skills, and to build a solid foundation in the transition to advanced Japanese. In this course, students are expected to expand their knowledge of Japanese culture; to utilize and improve the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing), and increase socio-cultural knowledge necessary for appropriate communication using a variety of materials including authentic materials.

Learning Outcome

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- 1) discuss, analyze, and apply content knowledge appropriate to advanced-level oral presentations and technical writing in Japanese.
- 2) apply critical listening, reading, speaking and writing strategies to a variety of texts, including written, oral, and visual material in order to analyze texts with appropriate critical, theoretical, rhetorical, and disciplinary methodologies.

- 3) produce a variety of written texts and oral presentations in Japanese about Japanese culture, society, and history through active discussion and a revision process based on feedback from peers and instructors.

Specific Learning Outcome for Chapters 4-7:

Ch.4 Japanese Sports 日本のスポーツ

Discuss Japanese contemporary and traditional sports and upcoming Tokyo Olympic. Exchange opinions on sportsman sprites and the concept of 心技体 (shin-gi-tai, mind-technique-body). Describe Japanese club activities (i.e., bukatsu and saakuru) and human relationships between senior and junior (i.e., senpai and kohai). Practice how to consult with people in a cultural appropriate way.

Ch. 5 Japanese food 日本の食べ物

Discuss a variety of foods (traditional dishes, fast food, etc.) in Japan and explain the history of instant noodles and cup noodles and how these inventions were spread to the world. Exchange opinions about healthy food and living and present their favorite Japanese food.

Ch.6 Japanese People and Religion 日本人と宗教

Discuss Japanese religion, religious events, mythology, beliefs and customs. Explain social phenomena using graphs and charts. Discuss superstitions cross-culturally and state opinions on Japanese ways of living.

Ch.7 Japanese popular culture 日本のポップカルチャー

Describe and explain the Japanese popular culture and manga by Osamu Tezuka. Analyze Japanese onomatopoeic expressions in manga. Discuss ways that Japanese people register complaints and compare them with one's own culture(s).

Method of Instruction

This course is conducted in Japanese as much as possible. The student will learn Japanese culture and society through class discussion, oral practice in small groups, role-playing, interaction with the instructor, writing and listening exercises, daily homework assignments, and online exercises and quizzes. The class activities are designed in consideration of the following elements: content-based, project-based, hands-on; collaborative learning; and multiple approaches to the assessments (oral, listening, role play, essay, presentation, etc.)

Course Procedures

There are fifteen Chapters in the Tobira textbook (上級へのとびら). In JAPN116B, the following four Chapters will be introduced. At the end of this course syllabus, you will see a semester-long schedule. In each Chapter Module, you will find a detailed daily schedule.

- Chapter 4: Japanese Sports
- Chapter 5: Japanese Food
- Chapter 6: Japanese Region
- Chapter 7: Japanese Popular Culture

The class meets two times a week. Students need to plan for 3 hours of study for each credit unit. For this course, you need at least 9 hours per week outside of class for studying. Approximately, we will spend 4-5 weeks for each chapter.

Day 1: 語彙・読む前に
Day 2 - 3: 読み物 (漢字・語い・文法)
Day 4 - 6: 会話文・会話練習
Day 6 - 8: 小テスト・小プロジェクト

Note that I will not attempt to introduce and practice all the new grammar and vocabulary in each chapter of the textbook. Items needing no special presentation or practice will be left for you to master on your own.

In each Chapter, students are expected to prepare for ZOOM classes and complete daily assignments (10-15 assignments per Chapter).

Be sure to check the daily schedule. We recommend that you create an effective method to organize your homework (e.g., binder, making copies, etc.) and develop good study skills and habits. Remember that acquiring a language is not something that can be achieved through overnight cramming. It can only be accomplished through the accumulation of daily effort. Review what you learn every day!

1. Attendance (5%)

This is a skills-based course: your language skills will not improve without consistent daily effort and active participation in classroom activities. Therefore, you are expected to attend every ZOOM class. The ZOOM class begins with taking an attendance.

Attendance is evaluated on a daily point system:

100%	Participates actively in class
80%	Arrives less than 10 minutes late or leaves less than 10 minutes early
0%	Present for less than 50% of the class period; No participation (doing other work, sleeping) or absent.

Absences result in 0 points for the day. Exceptions will be made when student contacted with instructor. Examples of excused absences include: illness, court order, religious holiday, family emergency, and job interviews. Absences in these cases will not affect the grade. At the end of the term, if you attend every ZOOM class without once arriving late or leaving early (no excused absence), you will be given “皆勤賞 kaikin sho” (Perfect Attendance Award), and an extra 1% will be added to your final grade.

NOTE: When missing more than two weeks of classes without any notification (4 ZOOM sessions over the course of the semester), you may not pass the course.

2. One-minute Speech & Oral Skit Presentation (5%)

During the semester, each student will make a one-minute speech in front of the class on a topic of his/her choice. Make an appointment with the instructor during office hours the week before you are scheduled to present to review and practice your speech. Grading criteria includes 1) Content; 2) Delivery (fluency, accuracy); and 3) Expressions (vocabulary, learned expression).

For every chapter you will be asked to create/memorize a dialogue using the target grammar patterns with your partner and perform it in ZOOM class, before/after class, or during office hours. Detailed instructions will follow. The grading criteria is as follows:

10 pts	Excellent use of the target grammar, excellent fluency, pronunciation, intonation, and cultural and social appropriateness
8 pts	Clearly prepared and fair performance, but weak in minor areas
6-4 pts	Lack of fluency, inappropriate use of the target grammar
1 point	Present but unprepared
0 point	Absent or no performance

3. Assignments and Quizzes/Exercises (30%)

All assignments for this course will be submitted electronically through Canvas unless otherwise instructed. Assignments consist of reading and listening tasks from Tobira textbook, Tobira worksheets (kanji, grammar & video), cultural research postings, and in-class short skit performances. Quizzes include Quizlet Test and Canvas Quizzes (Chapter vocabulary, grammar, content, and exam preparation). Assignments are worth 10 pts. Visit the Assignments link in Canvas for details about each assignment.

Due dates are posted at Daily Schedule in Module, and Syllabus and Assignments links on the Canvas. Incomplete and late homework will receive a lower grade. Late homework/Redo will be accepted by Friday of the assigned week at 11:59PM.

NOTES: 3 lowest assignment/quiz scores will be automatically dropped at the end of the semester.

4. Chapter Test (40%)

At the end of each Chapter, you will be asked to take a Chapter Test. Each test is worth 100 pts. Test will have online test (vocabulary, grammar, reading), an essay (hand-writing), and an oral interview with your instructor.

5. Chapter Projects (20%)

Part 4: Course Policies

Be Collaborative, Considerate and Respectful

In JAPN116B, students' proficiency level may range from Intermediate Low to pre-Advanced. In a multi-level class, it is very important to work collaboratively. If you know more Japanese or perform better than some of your classmates, please do your best to help others. If your proficiency level is lower than others, please keep a positive attitude towards learning. As long as you demonstrate excellence in your performance within your proficiency range, you have an equal opportunity to earn an "A" for this course. Some students may already be at the advanced level speaking. These students are expected to demonstrate improvement throughout the semester. Active participation in class activities will greatly enhance your progress in Japanese. Please do not be afraid of making mistakes/errors in the classroom. Be motivated and disciplined, and willing to collaborative with your partner(s). Be respectful of each other and show consideration towards others.

If you find that you have any trouble keeping up with assignments or other aspects of the course, make sure you let your instructor know as early as possible. As you will find, building rapport and effective relationships are key to becoming an effective professional. Make sure that you are proactive in informing your instructor when difficulties arise during the semester so that we can help you find a solution.

Incomplete Policy

Under emergency/special circumstances, students may petition for an incomplete grade. An incomplete will only be assigned if a "serious and compelling" case is presented. All incomplete course assignments must be completed within a year. Department Form (Petition for Incomplete Grade)

Inform Your Instructor of Any Accommodations Needed

If you have a documented disability and verification from the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities (SSWD), and wish to discuss academic accommodations, please contact your instructor as soon as possible.
