

---

Criteria for Urgent Project

---

1. Governor or Chancellor's Office mandate
2. Presidential mandate
3. Audit response
4. Litigation or other court ordered response
5. Condition arises from an unforeseen occurrence or condition
  - Vendor goes out of business
  - Natural disaster or abnormal weather event (fire, flood, storm, earthquake, etc.)
  - Security breach
6. Condition must require immediate corrective action which cannot await execution of proper project vetting
  - Critical equipment/hardware failure or support end of life
  - Building or infrastructure planning and/or installation
    - Timing is dependent on permit approvals, funding, contractor availability, weather, academic & payroll calendars, etc.
  - Software accessibility deficiencies identified after implementation that must be mitigated
  - Product end of life has been reached or is imminent
  - Contract expiration has been reached or is imminent, vendor will not extend
7. Condition causes significant business impact
  - More than 20% users cannot use a product/process/service
    - Criteria: system, type of users, time of year
    - Prospective and/or students, faculty, staff, alumni, auxiliaries, applicants
8. Condition may cause irreparable damage, severe incapacity, high risk for physical injury