

PRIDE WEEK

April 5th–9th, 2021

Pride Week celebrates the social and self-acceptance, achievements, legal rights, and history of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, non-binary, and queer individuals. The week-long celebration serves as a congratulatory recognition and remembrance of the cultural impact of LGBTQ leaders and the movement for global social justice. Pride Week 2021 will run from April 5th to the 9th, culminating with Queer Prom. Programming is open to Sac State students, staff, and faculty.

See below for an overview of the week's schedule:

Monday, April 5th

Common Ground Podcast @ Sac State LGBTQ Episode

YouTube, Spotify

This episode will cover LGBTQ rights, workplace equality, military access, and progressive healthcare. Guests will include Sacramento LGBTQ community leaders and activists. Tune in on Spotify or Youtube.

Tuesday, April 6th

12:15pm–12:45pm

Dance class feat. LGBTQ musical artist

Organizational Learning & Development x Pride Center

This session will be led by Sac State wellness instructor, Maria Muganzo. Participants will be guided through a robust half-hour of African dance movements and wellness postures, exercises, and dance techniques.

Join us here: <https://csus.zoom.us/j/84439896219?from=addon>

Wednesdays

12:00pm–1:00pm

Queer Connect (Year-Round)

Zoom ID: 863 8814 9669

Queer Connect is a weekly support group for students who identify as LGBTQIA+. This online space creates an accessible, affirming and empowering space for students of all intersecting identities to build community and support one another. Virtual meetings will be facilitated by Katelyn Sandoval, Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist in Student Health and Counseling Services. All topics or questions are welcome.

Thursday, April 8th

9:00am–12:00pm

Safe Zone Training

Safe Zone Training is a 3-hour workshop that aims to create safe spaces on campus, in people, and in organizations and departments. Presentation topics include transgender safety, gender inclusive language, and allyship accountability. Participants will also engage in conversations about the influence of identity on student success, and campus safety for LGBTQ people. Three spring training dates are available.

Register here.

Thursday, April 8th

6:00pm–7:00pm

Hornet Nights Trivia

Student Health & Counseling X Pride Center

All participants will be entered into a drawing for the chance to win fun prizes. To sign up, current students need to (1) sign into their Patient Portal at bit.ly/SHCSPatientPortal, (2) click the groups/workshops tab on the left, and (3) sign up for "04/08/2021 Hornet Nights Trivia." If you have any questions, reach out to Rachel at Rachel.Alvarez@csus.edu.

Friday, April 9th

3:00pm–5:30pm

Queer Prom

Pride Center

This unique event reframes Prom, a heteronormative rite of passage, into one of empowerment, safety and celebration for LGBTQ people. Students, staff, and faculty are invited to experience Prom in their own way and with whomever makes them feel magical. During this virtual event, students, staff, and faculty who attend will have an opportunity to connect, engage in activities, and dance to fun tunes from DJ Esco. Register here.

Monday, April 5th

3:00pm–4:00pm

Working Out Your Stress Workshop: LGBTQIA+ Representation in Media

Participants will discuss stereotypes, address the impact of harmful representation, and connect with on-campus PRIDE resources. Register here.

Tuesday, April 6th

2:00pm–3:00pm

Discovering & Exploring Your Identity While In College

Residential Hall Association x Rainbow Chamber of Commerce x Stonewall Foundation of Greater Sacramento x Pride Center

Come join us to engage and learn about resources, terminology and myths regarding transgender and queer identities! We will engage in a fun kahoot game, learn about community support services, and have an open discussion for everyone to participate in. This is a safe space for all members to come learn more about their own identities.

Join us here: <https://csus.zoom.us/j/82506689126>

Wednesday, April 7th

3:00pm–5:00pm

Undocu-Queer Visibility

Pride Center x Dreamer Resource Center x The Sacramento LGBT Center

Undocu-Queer Day will celebrate the experiences, contributions, and voices of queer-identified undocumented communities. The virtual event will include a presentation by undocu-queer activists, followed by a facilitated discussion.

Join us here: <https://csus.zoom.us/j/81355891213>

Thursday, April 8th

12:00pm–1:00pm

QTFAS invites you to our Pride Week BYOL (Bring Your Own Lunch)

Zoom ID: 821 5427 6694

QTFAS would like to invite all a part of the Sac State community to our Pride week BYOL (Bring Your Own Lunch) Hang out! Come chat with peers and hang out and celebrate all that is LGBTQIA+!

Join us here: <https://csus.zoom.us/j/82154276694>

Thursday, April 8th

7:30pm–9:00pm

Drag Queen Bingo

UNIQUE programs x Rainbow Chamber of Commerce

This virtual event is open to Sac State community and the general public. Local drag personality, Do Me Moore, will host the event and attendees can expect rowdy fun and prizes. Zoom link and instructions to download bingo cards will be sent to those who register.

Visit www.SacStateUNIQUE.com for more information.

Pride Week 2021 Campus Partners:

University Housing Services • Sacramento LGBT Center • Stonewall Foundation of Greater Sacramento • Student Health and Counseling Services
Organizational Learning and Development • U.N.I.Q.U.E programs • Outword Magazine • Sacramento Rainbow Chamber of Commerce • Dreamer Resource Center
Mario Esco Multimedia • Alcohol Tobacco and Other Drugs • The Pride Center