Enjoy a 60 minute Living Voices program that combines a dynamic solo performance with archival film and sound, turning history into a moving and personal journey.

On Sept. 24 you will meet Jessie, the daughter of a political columnist from Tennessee, growing up in Washington, DC during the early 1900s with dreams of being as important to her father as her younger brother is. When her Great-Aunt Charlotte, a longtime suffragist, comes to Washington, she introduces Jessie to the movement.

19th Amendment Committee Goals

The Renaissance Society 19th Amendment Centennial committee, working with the seminar committee and seminar leaders, is promoting opportunities for members to honor the 72+ years of effort made by so many to achieve women's enfranchisement and to consider subsequent civil rights challenges. In addition, we are joining hands with relevant community organizations to promote ways to ensure that younger generations hear this story of extraordinary perseverance.
