Faculty Development Grants

Faculty Grant recipient
Darla Hagge | 2015

The 2015 grant recipient Darla Hagge, assistant professor of speech-language pathology, was appointed in 2013. She has a master’s degree in communicative disorders from CSU Fullerton and a doctorate in disability studies from Chapman University. Dean Baldini noted that a broad range of services is provided to the community under her guidance.

Retiree Association Scholarships

Retiree Association Scholarship recipient
Teresa Morton | 2014

Our 2014 scholarship recipients were Teresa Morton and Kyle Swartz. Teresa (pictured left) is a junior psychology major. She attended Folsom Lake and American River colleges before transferring to Sacramento State. Teresa’s mother, Patti Morton, is a lecturer in the School of Nursing. Kyle Swartz is a senior majoring in kinesiology. He enjoys learning sign language, movies and exercising. Kyle’s mother, Suzanne Swartz, is a contract management specialist in Procurement and Contract Services.

In recent years, the Retirees Association has supported requests from the Festival of the Arts, the Library Gallery, the University Staff Assembly, the Multi-Cultural Center, the Anthropology Museum, and the Friends of the Library, as well as programs in the departments of philosophy, music, engineering and theater and dance.

Join us in supporting faculty grants, scholarships and programs.

The Retirees Association is creating the Founders Endowment to support Faculty Development Grants, scholarships and programs at Sacramento State. All retired faculty, staff and administrators are invited to participate in creating this lasting legacy by making a gift, pledge or CalPERS deduction.

For more information on ways to give to the Retirees Association Founders Endowment, or another program, please contact Kevin J. Gonzalez at (916) 278-6290, or kevin.gonzalez@csus.edu.
The Founders Endowment supports Faculty Research Grants, scholarships for dependents of Sacramento State employees, and special projects by request (e.g. Festival of the Arts, University Staff Assembly). All retired administrators, faculty and staff are invited to support the Retirees Association Founders Endowment by making a one-time gift, authorizing a monthly deduction through CalPERS, or creating a pledge by check or credit card. If you are interested in donating through appreciated securities, real estate or a qualifying retirement account, or interested in creating your own endowment to be administered by the Retirees Association, please contact Kevin Gonzalez at kevin.gonzalez@csus.edu, or (916) 278-6290.
