

THE CHICANX/LATINX FACULTY AND STAFF ASSOCIATION DE SAC STATE PRESENTS:

Latinx/Hispanic Heritage Month

Library Exhibit Highlights

Chicanx/Latinx Excellence

Second Floor of the Library

Visit the installation on the second floor of the library to learn more about the history of Chicanx/Latinx at Sac State and beyond. For more information, visit the Sac State Library Spotlight on the exhibit.

“Loteria of Chicanx/Latinx Excellence at Sac State and Beyond,”

Curated by Dr. Heidi Sarabia and Dr. Elvia Ramirez
See the spotlights of Chicanx/Latinx individuals, programs, and organizations at Sac State and Beyond, as well as books published by Chicanx/Latinx Faculty at Sac State.

“Femicides,”

Curated by Dr. Diego Bonilla, Dr. Brenda Romero, and Dr. Maria Vargas

Learn about the urgent topic of violence against women in Latin America through different lenses—including statistics, books, and Requiem Diurnus, a digital art project that uses artificial intelligence to acknowledge and mourn the victims of femicides worldwide.

“Student projects,” curated by Dr. David Flores, Dr. Nancy Huante Tzintzun, and Dr. Jason Tena-Encarnacion

Artwork created by students during the Spring 2024 semester and includes zines, posters, shoebox displays, 3D figures, and more.

Special thanks to the CHLFSA Library Exhibit Committee for their work putting this exhibit together: Diego Bonilla, David Flores, Elvia Ramirez, Brenda, Romero, Heidi Sarabia, and Maria Vargas. In addition, we are thankful to the library committee and staff for their support, especially Brynn Allen and Maria Ramirez.

Visit our website for more info: www.chlfsa.org