

TOOLS FOR YOUR SUCCESS

GRADUATE AND NONTRADITIONAL STUDENT RESOURCE FAIR

Offered Workshops

- Intro to Research
- Your Money Matters: Budgeting, Loans, & Credit!
- Organizing your Citations with Endnote

Join Inclusive Excellence and ASI for a resource fair centering the experiences and needs of graduate and nontraditional students. While the resources are focused, all students, staff, and faculty are encouraged to attend.

March 10th | 3–6 PM

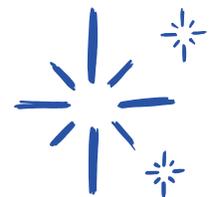

University Union

Resource Tables:

Orchard Suite, 2nd floor

Workshops:

Green & Gold Room, 3rd floor

For more information or to request accommodations:
nrumfola@csus.edu

WORKSHOP SCHEDULE:

GREEN AND GOLD ROOM; UNIVERSITY UNION THIRD FLOOR

3-4 PM: Introduction to Research by the University Library

Join us for a hands-on workshop that will cover searching for research articles in library databases, navigating the library website, and how your assigned subject librarian can help you with all of your information needs. These resources will help you with your coursework, capstone projects or theses, and provide you with the tools you need to succeed as a researcher.

4-5 PM: Your Money Matters by Financial Wellness

Interactive workshop covering Budgeting, Loans and Credit. The presentation includes 3 activities relevant to each topic for students to get a hands-on experience throughout the presentation.

5-6 PM: Organizing Your Citations with Endnote by the University Library

As a graduate student, you may have already started to experience citation overload and the importance of organizing your research for easy access! EndNote 21 is a citation management tool available to students, staff, and faculty at Sacramento State that can help you optimize your research. EndNote 21 creates, stores, and manages your references while seamlessly integrating with MS Word and Mac Pages, allowing you to create and format bibliographies in thousands of citation styles. Join us to see how EndNote 21 can help you get organized for your literature reviews and more.

RSVP for the workshops now!

