Nov. 20, 2012

‘Procession of Carols’ brightens holiday season

The holiday tradition continues as Sacramento State’s University Choirs, led by Donald Kendrick, present the popular “Procession of Carols” on Dec. 1-2 at Sacred Heart Church, 39th and J streets. Performances are at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1; and 2 and 7 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 2.

Candlelit processions, narrations and organ, as well as beautiful music from the University's Choral Program make this a festive occasion every December.

This year’s program includes the Austrian carol “Still, Still, Still” and fresh new settings of “Jingle Bells” and “The Snow Lay on the Ground.” The audience will be invited to share in some of the music to brighten holiday spirits.

The “Procession of Carols” regularly sells out, so advance tickets are strongly recommended. Tickets are $15 general, $10 seniors and $5 for students, and are available at the Sacramento State Ticket Office, (916) 278-4323.

For more information on the Choral Program, visit www.csus.edu/music/choral. For media assistance, call Sacramento State’s Public Affairs office at (916) 278-6156.

– Craig Koscho
ckoscho@csus.edu

Sacramento State is making a difference in California’s Capital Region and beyond. We offer a life-changing opportunity for our 28,000 students, preparing them to be leaders in their professions and communities. Our professors are known for their dedication to great teaching. And our location in the capital of the nation’s most populous state allows students to pursue unique internships and research.

###

80-F12-CK