Welcome to Student Academic Success Day 2022!

The Student Academic Success and Educational Equity Program Unit is proud to present SAS Week and SAS Day 2022. This year’s overall event theme is “Passionate, Persistent, and Powerful: Proclaiming Success.”

As a new component of the Student Academic Success programming, SAS Day has grown to include a week of events that will kick-off on Monday, September 19th, 2022 from 11 am to noon with a Principals and Community College Leaders’ Summit with a theme of “Paving the Educational Equity Pipeline.” This session is dedicated to building partnerships across the region to empower connections to promote educational equity and to help diverse students traverse the equity pipeline between educational segments. This session will be held virtually to reach leaders from throughout the State.

Continuing during the week of September 19th will be sessions hosted by our College Faculty Advisor Team paired with their respective coaches to provide information on “Navigating Passion in the Major.” These sessions will be offered fully online for scholars via Zoom. The sessions by College are as follows:

- College of Arts and Letters
- College of Business
- College of Education
- College of Engineering and Computer Science
- College of Health and Human Services
- College of Natural Sciences and Mathematics
- College of Social Sciences and Interdisciplinary Studies

Student Academic Success Week will culminate with a Student Success Extravaganza on Monday, September 26th, 2022 from 11 am to 3 pm for exciting in-person components. To start the day, Mega Success workshops will be held to empower students to persist and succeed in their passion areas of success. These sessions will be held in the University Union from 11 am to 11:50 am in various breakout rooms. At noon, the DEGREES Project will host an empowerment luncheon and Transfer Success Send Off in the main Ballroom from 12:00 pm – 1:15 pm with the theme of “Powerful Stories of Success.” This segment will include highlighting features of transfer success, speakers, and student motivational components. SAS Day will end with a signature capstone Outdoor Resource Fair and Success Festival in Serna Plaza from 1:30 pm – 3:00 pm just right outside the University Union building. Join us as we ignite your passions, dreams, and hopes as you persist and proclaim success in your own life’s powerful journey.
