

FULL CIRCLE PROJECT

Who we are

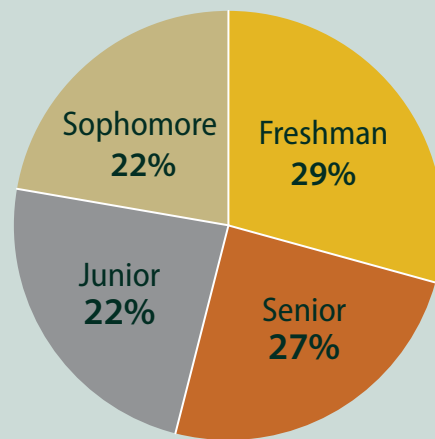

Full Circle Project aims to assist Asian American and Pacific Islander (AAPI) students throughout their entire college careers and provide ample opportunities to engage in service both on and off campus to enhance their university experience.

Demographics of Students

N=427
(Fall 2018/Spring 2019)

Gender

Class Level

Average age: 20 years
Range: 17-25 years

Key Performance Indicators

	Fall '18 n=391	Spring '19 n=362
Average Term GPA	2.95	2.90
Average Unit Load	14.33	13.62
Enrolled in 15+ Units	51%	43%
Full Unit Load	94%	94%
Good Academic Standing	95%	96%
Persisted the following semester	95%	95%

Three Service Components

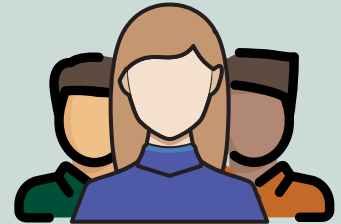

Academic Support

- Students receive support such as workshops on applying for scholarships and professionalism.
- Academic advising, tutoring and mentorship are all available to students
- Academic coursework such as Transfer Learning Community (ETHN 198) are available to students
- Students gain affirmation of their success through enrichment and scholarly activities including the APIA (Asian Pacific Islander American) graduation celebration

Community Engagement

- Provide development and advocacy workshops on APIA identity
- Learning community programming that highlights APIA Heritage Month and inviting different APIA communities on campus including My Sister's House, Asian Resources Inc., SMUD, and Sacramento County Department of Behavioral Health is provided
- Connections with helpful peers and faculty are available
- Students take classes in helpful cohort groups
- Social support is provided to help students thrive in college

Leadership Development

- Students take part in the Leadership Initiative in partnership with Student Organizations and Leadership (SO&L)
- Leadership coursework is made available to AAPI students
- Career and professional workshops – more than 15 students attended the annual Asian Pacific American in Higher Education (APAHE) conference
- Participate in cultural enrichment activities
- Minor in Asian American Studies
- Gain leadership skills

