

ONLINE WRITING TUTORING

Sacramento State's Writing Center tutors will be offering remote tutoring for students who haven't yet made appointments.

We will be assisting students with their writing assignments via email – with a 48-hour turnaround response, also via email.

We will provide feedback on many important concerns, including:

- Organization
- Clarity
- Development
- How well you respond to the prompt.

Please note: We can't fix or proofread entire papers¹

This process will be asynchronous – you need to send us your writing prompt, a current draft, and any pertinent questions to the Writing Center at wc@csus.edu

Our Graduate Coordinator will forward your paper to an available tutor, and the Writing Center will respond directly to you with feedback on your paper within 48 hours.

You'll be able to make a request once a week, but please send all requests to the wc@csus.edu address, and not to the tutor, as they will be working on new responses for others.

We are excited to be offering this service after spring break, and encourage you to give us a try – our goal is to help you become a better writer!

Sincerely,
The CSUS Writing Center Staff

¹ We will add a note if we see recurring grammar issues, but we recommend that you always read your paper out loud to yourself to improve grammar and clarity!
